MONSTERS MAYHEM & family fun!

From Monday 26 October to Sunday 1 November 2026, Nottingham's rooftops are once again being taken over by monsters! Gather the family to spot them on a spooky safari.

Don't miss the Nottingham Halloween Parade on Wednesday 28 October – a spooky show of the Family of Phantoms, starting at Nottingham Central Library.

THE NOTTINGHAM HALLOWEEN PARADE PRESENTS: THE FAMILY OF PHANTOMS

Join the spooky celebrations throughout Nottingham City Centre as this troupe of ghosts, draped in illuminated and flowing capes, pursue the Ghost Rider.

Prepare for ethereal music and an enchanting procession as the Phantoms haunt the streets of Nottingham.

This delightfully creepy walkabout performance produced by Walk the Plank features performers from Nottingham College and FSD Dance.

Catch the parade on Wednesday 28 October at one of these times:

1pm 3pm 5pm

This hauntingly fun spectacle starts at Nottingham Central Library and visits Lister Gate, St Peters Square and Low Pavement – and it's all free to attend. See you there – if you dare.
